COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

EDWARD A. BECHTEL, Ph.D. $D \epsilon an$

The College of Arts and Sciences is one of the oldest colleges of Tulane University and, with the exception of Newcomb College, has the largest enrollment. Courses are offered leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Education in Physical Education. The curriculum in each case is planned so as to give a general education in fundamental subjects, and at the same time to afford specialization in some one group of studies with a view to the development of general culture and training.

Special courses are planned for those seeking admission to the College of Law, the College of Medicine and the College of Pharmacy. Among the elective courses affording professional training is included the Department of Journalism. The course in Physical Education is planned to train men to serve in the secondary schools as athletic coaches and directors, while at the same time the academic subjects are properly represented in the curriculum.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Douglas Smith Anderson, B.A., M.A., Dean

The College of Engineering offers broad courses of professional training in the fundamental principles underlying the various branches of Engineering and Architecture. The formulation of these courses is the outgrowth of the best thought of educators and the engineering profession and of our own experience during the last two decades.

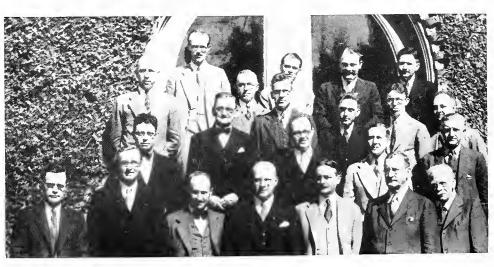

The technical studies in the College of Engineering are contained in four divisions, called schools. The schools are divided into departments. A department includes subjects, or groups of subjects, which are similar in nature. The schools are:

MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

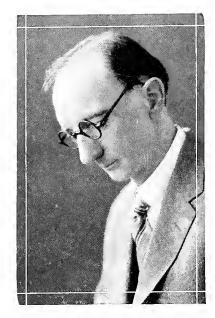

Civil Engineering Chemical Engineering Architecture

No candidate for a degree is allowed to restrict himself to the narrow training which might be imparted by any one school. Work in the technical departments of one of the above schools is made the backbone or principal part of a four years' course and supplemental work is required in other schools in the college.

NEWCOMB COLLEGE

PIERCE BUTLER, B.A., M.A., Ph.D. Dean

Newcomb College was founded by Mrs, Josephine Louise Newcomb, in October, 1886, as a memorial to her daughter, Harriet Sophie Newcomb. In her will, which is dated May 12, 1898, she left to the administrators of the Tulane Educational Fund, for the benefit of Newcomb College, the residue of her estate after the payment of certain specified legacies. Mrs. Newcomb's feeling for the people of New Orleans and her desire to advance the cause of education of young women in Louisiana were the reasons that moved her to make this foundation. It was her expressed wish that there should be maintained a simple form of daily religious exercises in a chapel or assembly room, but she specifically provided, "I desire that worship and instruction shall not be of a sectarian or denominational character."

There are at present eight buildings of fine construction upon the campus and several smaller buildings. We have recently completed and occupied a new dormitory, the Warren Newcomb House, fronting upon Newcomb Campus. This will probably form one unit in a plan of dormitories to be built. During the year 1928-29 we completed Dixon Hall, on the quadrangle fronting the Art Building, named in honor of President Emeritus Brandt V. B. Dixon. Dixon Hall, which was first used for the Commencement Exercises in 1929, provides an auditorium seating about one thousand, with a fine and well equipped stage; studio and practice rooms for the School of Music; and an entire wing for the Library. The stack rooms here will provide for about sixty thousand volumes and may be expanded.

The purpose of the college is to foster the intellectual life in any way that may seem most helpful and promising for the maintenance of a high standard of culture and it endeavors to equip young women for effective and intelligent service to society. The regular courses offered lead to the degree of B.A. or B.S., or for students in Art and Music, B.Design and B.Music.

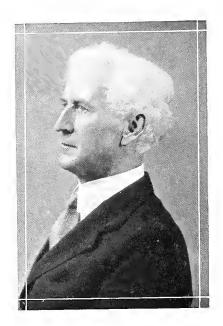

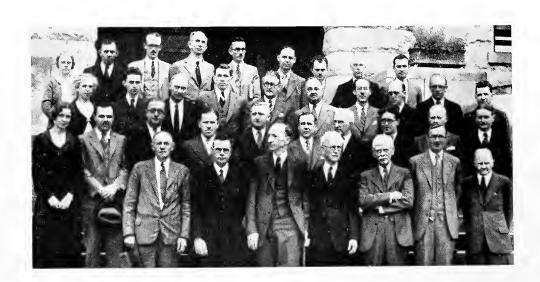

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

John MacLaren McBryde, Ph.D., Litt.D., Dean

To men and women holding the Bachelor's degree from Tulane University and from institutions of equal grade, the Graduate School offers courses leading to advanced degrees in the fields of the liberal arts, the sciences, and engineering. In addition to these, advanced courses leading to the degree of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are given in special fields in the medical sciences by members of the Medical Faculties who have been elected to membership in the Faculty of the Graduate School. Opportunities are afforded for clinical work in the hospitals of the city under the guidance of well-known specialists. Thus the Graduate School presents carefully planned courses designed for teachers desiring to gain a broader and deeper knowledge of their chosen fields and for graduates in engineering and medicine wishing to specialize in some particular lines of work.

THE COLLEGE OF LAW

RUFUS CARROLLTON HARRIS, A.B., LL.B., Jur.D. Dean

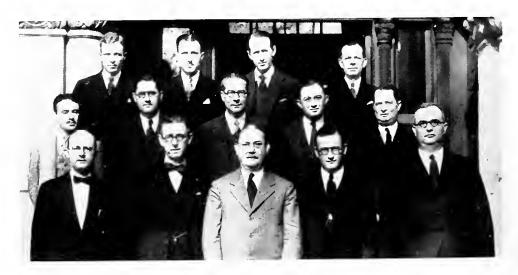

The Tulane College of Law was established in 1847 as the Law Department of the University of Louisiana. It has afforded legal training to thousands during the period of its existence.

The purpose of the College of Law is to provide opportunities and facilities for training equal to the best afforded el:ewhere. It purports to inculcate a sound knowledge of both substantive and adjective law. However, the school recognizes a duty beyond equipping and training of men to become practitioners. Many of the university students finds its courses valuable training for citizenship and business careers.

The curriculum of the College of Law has been arranged to provide for the special training of those who intend to practice in Louisiana, and at the same time it has been arranged to afford training to those who may wish to practice in any of the other states.

The College of Law owns a large and well selected library, which is today one of the most complete in the Southern States. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and has been given the Class A rating by the American Bar Association, and its degree is registered by the New York College Board of Regents. These are the standardizing agencies for law schools.

The publication of the Tulane Law Review by the College of Law affords a medium for the expression of the best thought available on the Jurisprudence of Louisiana.

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

CHARLES CASSEDY BASS, M.D., D.Sc. Dean

New Orleans has been the leading medical center of the entire South and Southwest for almost one hundred years. Wherever new ideas in medical progress have appeared, the medical profession of New Orleans has either reflected that progress promptly or has taken a leading part in its elucidation. Some of the scientific researches and contributions of the medical profession of New Orleans have commanded attention and high esteem in every civilized country in the world. Students and doctors from every state in the Union, and from many foreign countries, come to New Orleans for medical training. To meet the ever increasing needs in this direction, Tulane has erected a new Clinic Building, adjoining our great Charity Hospital, which provides the most complete and most extensive facilities for the best care of patients, combined with the best opportunities for a thorough study of diseases by the staff and students of the School of Medicine,

Provision is also made in the new "Hutchinson Memorial" for the headquarters of the organized medical profession of the city and state, represented by the Orleans Parish Medical Society and the Louisiana State Medical Society. Sufficient space is provided in the building for a library that will fall within the group of the largest five in the United States and will be a genuine storehouse of medical knowledge.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

HENRY DASPIT, M.D., F.A.C.P. Dean

The Graduate School of Medicine is the department of the College of Medicine of the Tulane University of Louisiana, which provides post-graduate instruction to the medical profession. The courses offered are arranged to afford work from October to June of each year, and during that time there may be found medical graduates from all parts of the country who come to avail themselves of the opportunities presented in order to keep abreast with the recent advances in medicine and surgery, or to specialize in the major branches.

Instruction during the forenoon is carried on in the wards and clinics of the Charity Hospital, Touro Infirmary and the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, and the afternoon and evenings comprise didactic lectures and work in the clinical laboratory at the Hutchinson Memorial Building. All of the instruction, whether didactic or clinical, is under the direction of men experienced in the various branches of medicine and surgery.

THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

I. F. Simon, Ph.M., Ph.D. Dean

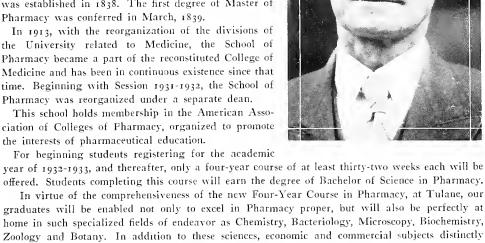

This school, the fourth oldest in the United States, was established in 1838. The first degree of Master of Pharmacy was conferred in March, 1839.

the University related to Medicine, the School of Pharmacy became a part of the reconstituted College of Medicine and has been in continuous existence since that time. Beginning with Session 1931-1932, the School of ciation of Colleges of Pharmacy, organized to promote the interests of pharmaceutical education.

For beginning students registering for the academic year of 1932-1933, and thereafter, only a four-year course of at least thirty-two weeks each will be graduates will be enabled not only to excel in Pharmacy proper, but will also be perfectly at home in such specialized fields of endeavor as Chemistry, Bacteriology, Microscopy, Biochemistry, Zoology and Botany. In addition to these sciences, economic and commercial subjects distinctly related to, and naturally connected with Practical Pharmacy, will pave the way for a successful career in the commercial world. It is obvious, then, that a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy, from Tulane, will always be in demand in his chosen community.

THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

Morton Arnold Aldrich, A.B., Ph.D. Dean

The purpose of this college has been, since its establishment in 1914, to offer substantial professional training preparatory to a business career.

The instruction offered is planned for students sufficiently ab'e and mature to do work of university grade, and no student is received unless prepared to do work of this character. It is essential, also, to the permanent success of the college that its students approach their work in an earnest professional spirit.

In order to make the business courses available for business men and women, classes are also held at night from 8 to 9:45 o'clock. These classes meet in Gibson Hall, Tulane University, each course being held one night a week. By thus devoting only one night a week to attending a course, a man or woman already in business may take any of the night courses offered.

Department of Middle American Research

FRANS BLOM, Director

One of Tulane University's most interesting features is the Department of Middle American Research, founded in 1924 to conduct advanced research into the history, archaeology, botany, products and natural resources of Mexico, the Central American republics and the West Indies, as well as to gather and disseminate information about these countries.

Five expeditions have been sent into the field. One was primarily agronomical, and three others had archaeology and ethnology as their object, but all collected as much general data as possible.

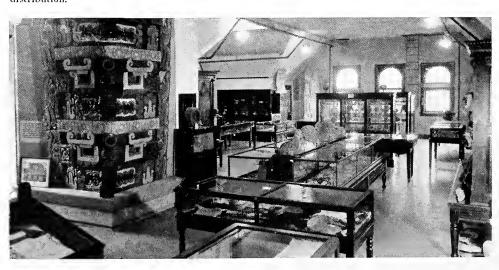

The Fifth Tnlane Expedition, financed by the Chicago World's Fair of 1933, spent four months in the ruined Maya nunnery at Uxmal, Yucatán, making plaster casts, photographing and mapping the great group of buildings that will be reproduced in full size at Chicago for museum buildings during the Fair. Two Tulane architecture students accompanied this expedition; two other students had participated in the John Geddings Grey Memorial Expendition in 1928.

Many valuable and interesting collections are in the Department's museum, including material on Middle America and related anthropology, and on the Southwestern United States.

The library of the Department ranks among the nation's leading research libraries. It contains thousands of rare items, including manuscripts, maps, and volumes on anthropology, archaeology, travel, geography, botany, biology and cartography of the Middle Americas. Both museum and library are open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., except Saturday afternoons and Sundays. They are also open each Wednesday night from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

Volumes of the Department's Middle American Research Series are appearing regularly. Among those which have already received favorable scientific attention are "Tribes and Temples", a two-volume exploration report by Frans Blom and Oliver La Farge; "The Ethno-Botany of the Maya", Ralph L. Roys' study of Maya medical remedics; and "The Year Bearer's People", another ethnological and archaeological study, by Oliver La Farge and Douglas S. Byers. Each number of the series is $5.00. An interesting pamphlet describing the department is also available for distribution.

THE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

GARRETT POLHEMUS WYCKOFF, A.B., LL.D. Director

The School of Social Work is on a graduate basis of admission and aims to give thorough professional training for social work. The leading social work agencies of New Orleans cooperate in furnishing field work facilities for students. Being the only member of the American Association of Schools of Professional Social Work located in the South between North Carolina and Southern California, the Tulane University School of Social Work attracts graduates from most of the leading universities of the South.

COURSES FOR TEACHERS

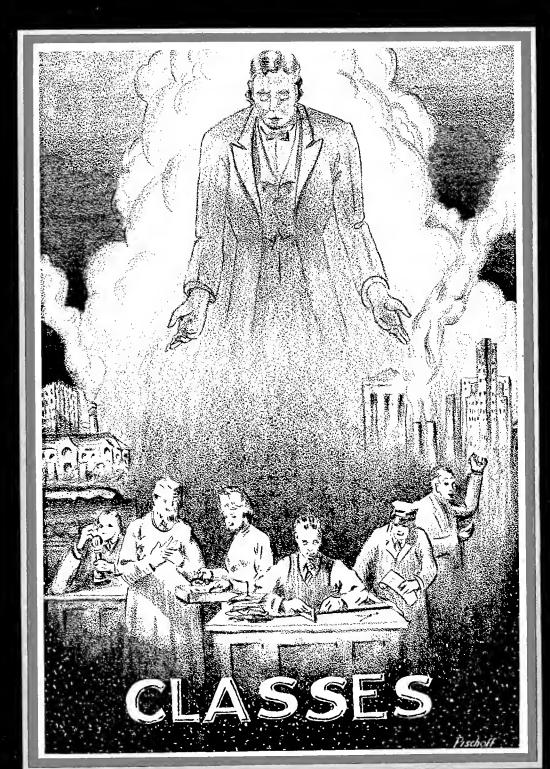

JAMES ADAIR LYON, A.M., D.Sc., Chairman

For many years Tulane University has operated a number of courses to meet the need of those whose hours of employment will not permit attendance upon regular classes. The classes are scheduled in the afternoon hours and on Saturdays, thus making it possible for teachers, especially if they so desire, to add to their equipment in many subjects.

These courses are of full college grade, conducted by regular members of the faculty, and in the case of students who have satisfactorily fulfilled the entrance requirements, credits obtained may be applied towards a degree.

General Athletics

1931 was a banner year in Tulane athletics. The Green Wave's representatives in every branch of athletic endeavor swept to the heights of fame in intercollegiate sportdom.

The nation's football fans went wild over the greatest gridiron team that ever came out of the South, which for the third year captured the Southern Conference title, and went down to glorious defeat in the Rose Bowl classic.

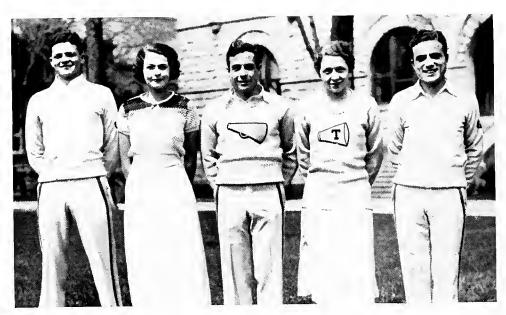

Other championships fell to the efforts of the Tulane stars. Captain Jesse Rainwater led the Greenie golfers to another Southern title and a splendid showing in the nationals.

Don Zimmerman's Frank Merriwell activities led the Tulanians to a Conference track and field title, with Captain Hugh Whatley and the rest of the team scoring numerous points.

Doyless Hill won the Conference heavy weight title for the second year, with the rest of the Greenies scoring enough to win a second place in team scoring.

Tennis maintained a high place in spite of the loss of several stars, while basketball started its comeback under the direction of a new coach. Baseball was resumed at the start of 1932 as an intramural activity.

With the full interfraternity, intramural, and interclass activities being completed as per schedule, and a new gymnasium and tennis stadium in store, ensuing years promise to be still greater for Tulane athletics.

Chalaron, Rittenberg, Moise, Bradley, Bonart

The Yell Squad

These five loyal students played an important role in the staging of a highly successful athletic year. It is hard to conceive of a successful team without student support, and equally hard to conceive of student support without good cheer leadership.

Each road game of that great Green Wave saw some of the squad hard at work extracting from the faithful followers that inspiring noise—the college yell.

Harold Moise headed the little troupe of cheerleaders and proved himself quite capable. His tumbling antics were a feature of the games. Harold was most ably assisted in his work by Harold Bonart and F. J. Chalaron in the Tulane stands, and those two much-written-of red-heads presiding over the Newcomb gathering.

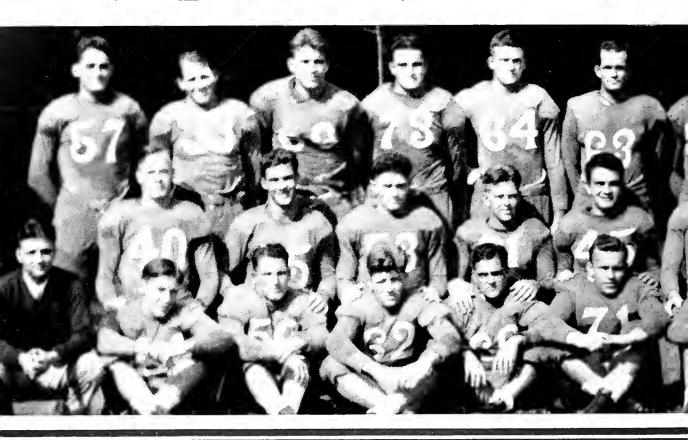

The entire squad contributed to the success of the team and shared in the glory that came with victory.

COACH BERNIE BIERMAN

The Southern Conference football horizon assumed a permanent Olive and Blue hue during the 1931 season, when Tulane's mightiest Green Wave ascended the throne of Dixie gridiron supremacy for the third successive year.

Nothing but destruction remained in its wake, as the rolling fields of the Southland became the flood bed for a rolling Sea of Green, at whose crest rode Coach Bernie Bierman, Captain Jerry Dalrymple, and one of the greatest football teams the nation has ever produced.

And what a record that team made for itself! With a forward wall well-nigh impregnable, and a backfield as versatile and aggressive as any in the country, the turbulent Wave tossed aside the best the South had to offer and maintained a brilliant undefeated and untied record through its eleven-game schedule.

Speed, power, versatility, and deception were the four horsemen in the Greenie attack, which ran up 338 points in eleven games, while splendid defensive work held opponents to 33 points for the entire season.

Ole Miss faced the Greenies in the opening game of the season, and proved more than a mere set-up for Tulane. Late in the third quarter "Red" Dawson turned on the power, and the Wavemen romped subsequently to a 31-0 victory.

A powerful team from Texas A. and M. came next and gave the Greenies a scare on a soggy field. Tulane took advantage of one opportunity to score and was content to play a defensive game thereafter, maintaining a 7-0 lead to the final whistle.

Bernie Bierman allowed his reserves a chance to show their stuff against Pat Browne's Springhill eleven, and the entire squad participated in a 40-0 Tulane victory.

The first real test of the season, against Vanderbilt, showed the Greenies just where they rated. A pair of first-quarter breaks gave the Commodores two chances to score inside the Wave 10-yard line, but Ted Cox's forward wall held, and Nollie Felts kicked out of danger.

Then Don Zimmerman, Francis Payne, and Felts ripped the vaunted Commodore line to shreds and the Greenies left Nashville on the long end of a 19-0 score.

HISTORY

Georgia Tech's once formidable Golden Tornado resolved itself into the gentlest of breezes in the Tulane stadium Homecoming Day, with Dalrymple and Zimmerman furnishing the fireworks before a large crowd.

Little Mississippi A. and M. then did what no other team had accomplished—they crossed the Tulane goal line. Spurred into action, the Greenies ran rampant, scoring 33 points in the final period alone, and left the field the winner, 59 to 7.

The Green Wave again finished strong against Auburn, submerging the fighting Tiger, 27 to 0, in Crampton Bowl. The Plainsmen fought tenaciously, and only in the last minute of the first half could the Greenies cross their goal. The Wave worked smoother in the second half to finish the scoring.

Georgia loomed as a powerful foe, but for the third straight year the Green Wave thwarted the Bulldog's title aspirations. Georgia scored, but Tulane had a 20-7 edge at the finish.

The reserves, led by Jimmy Hodgins, stole the spotlight in the Sewanee clash. The Greenies scored two touchdowns in each of the first three quarters to win, 40 to 0.

L. S. U. appeared next, and the upstate Tigers had their best team in years. An early Bengal score on a long pass spurred the Wave into action, and Zimmerman, Glover, et al ran roughshod over their arch-rivals to a 34-7 victory before 28,000 spectators.

Washington State, Pacific Coast champions, met the Greenies in the season finale and showed sufficient power to score twice against a crippled Tulane eleven. Then Zimmerman started throwing passes to "Lefty" Haynes, and the Wavemen romped, 28 to 14.

Sheer brilliance in every department of the game—brilliance radiating from a group of individual stars willing to sacrifice personal glory for the success of the unit gave Tulane its greatest season in football history.

Top—Pat Richardson banking a fast turn against Ole Miss.

Bottom—Quick work by the Texas Aggies, and quicker work by 'Papa' Felts.

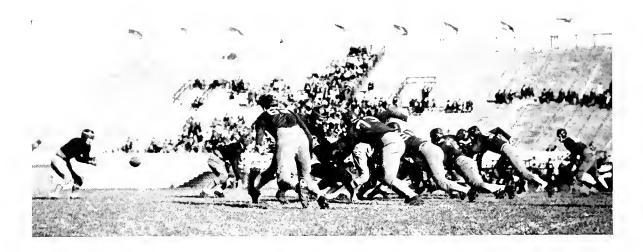

Top—Springhill kicks on their own goal line.

Bottom—Zimmerman scoring the first touchdown against Georgia Tech.

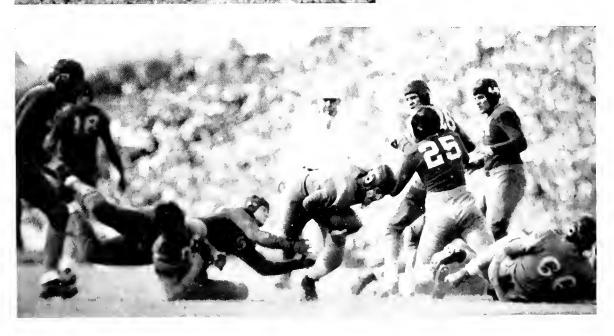

The Greenie line working in unison against Mississippi A. and M.

Auburn's Hitchcock takes in a high one meant for Jerry.

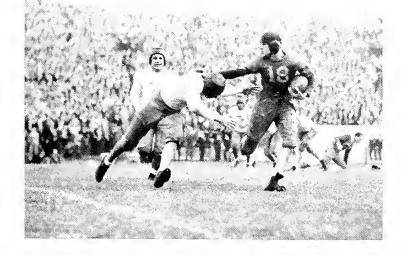

Nollie Felts crosses the Georgia goal line.

"Wop" Glover ripping off a few yards against Sewanee.

Don Zimmerman eludes an L. S. U. Tiger.

"Lefty" Haynes headed for Washington State's goal line for the first Green marker.

HAYNES

CAPTAIN GERALD R. DALRYMPLE End

All-American

All-Southern

The greatest end the South has ever seen, Jerry Dalrymple deserves a place among the greatest of football's greats. An uncanny diagnostician of opposing offenses, Jerry was always in the path of the play, and his all-around excellence earned him a unanimous all-American berth for the second consecutive year.

LOWELL POTTER DAWSON Quarterback

All-American Honorable Mention All-Southern

Tulane's success is due in no small part to the headwork of one of the coolest, cleverest field generals the South has seen—"Red" Dawson. He was expert at diagnosing opposing defenses, and his superb quarterbacking, fine punting, and excellent blocking and defensive work will be extremely difficult to replace.

Vernon C. Haynes End

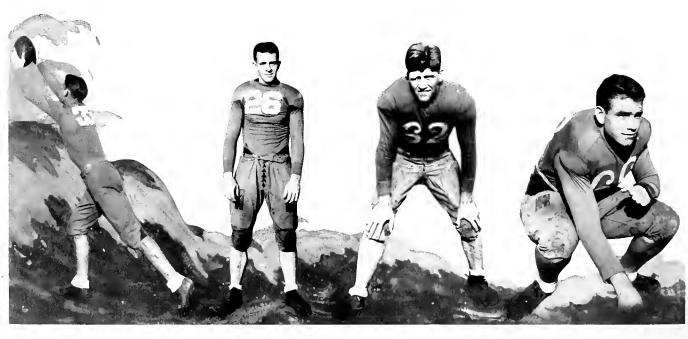

All-American Honorable Mention All-Southern Honorable Mention

"The lad with g'ue on his finger-tips", was what the sport writers said about this most rensational of pass-receivers. A great offensive end, "Lefty" was just as good on defense, and the way he smeared opposing plays aimed at his side of the line, coupled with his remarkable handling of passes, earned him national recognition.

ALTERNATE CAPTAIN ELDON CLAGGETT UPTON, JR.

Tackle

A more efficient or more dependable lineman cannot be found than "Tick" Upton. This huge mountain of a man was a bulwark in the Greenie defense whom opposing interferers could not budge. "Tick" will be hard to replace next fall.

FELTS

Lodrigues

SCAFIDE

CAPTAIN-ELECT NOLLIE C. FELTS Fullback

All-American Honorable Mention All-Southern

The backbone of the Greenie eleven, "Papa Nollie", is probably the steadiest and the most consistent player on the squad. Nollie is an excellent interferer, a great kicker, an exceptional defensive player, and no line he ever opposed was able to stop him. He was high point scorer in the South,

Donald Gordon Zimmerman, Jr. Halfback

All-American, Second Team All Southern

The "Flying Dutchman" of Tulane was rated by players throughout the country as the best all-around back in football during 1931, and well he might be. A marked man in every game he played, Don nevertheless starred throughout the season with his brilliant ball-carrying, passing, kicking, blocking, and fine defensive play.

WINNIE PAUL LODRIGUES Center

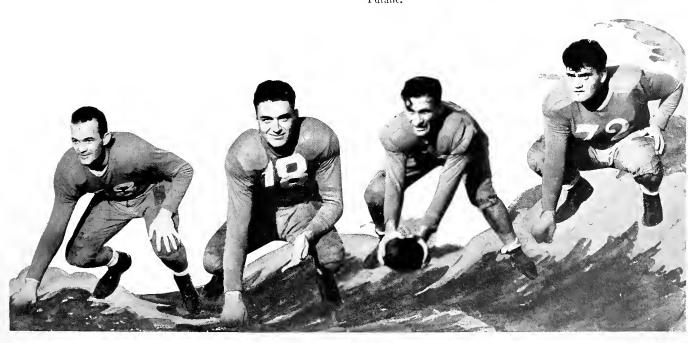

All-American Honorable Mention All-Southern Honorable Mention

Winnie had the difficult task of filling "Preacher" Roberts' shoes, but how he succeeded is now Tulane football history. Winnie was brilliant in every game, but his sensational work in the Rose Bowl, where he was instrumental in stopping the Trojan power plays, was the crowning achievement of a great season.

ALTERNATE CAPTAIN-ELECT JOHN ANDREW SCAFIDE Guard

All-American Honorable Mention All-Southern

Built like a box-car, this Italian power-house was a huge thorn in the side of every opposing eleven. He charged like a Mack Truck in low gear, and the yardage made over "Baby Grand's" position was as scarce as hens' teeth. The smile on Coach Cox's face may be attributed to the fact that Scafide has another year at Tulane.

GLOVER

DE COLIGNY

McCormick

PAYNE

HARRY CYRIL GLOVER, JR. Halfback

All-Southern Honorable Mention

Worlds of fight and stamina rolled up into one magnificent little football player, this "Little Stick o' Dynamite" exploded against some of the strongest teams in the country to start the Green Wave flowing on to victory. His magnificent play in the Rose Bowl especially deserves worlds of praise.

CALVERT GASPARD DE COLIGNY Tackle

All-Southern Honorable Mention

It will take a real man next year to fill those No. 12 shoes vacated by "Foots" de Coligny. This "Creole Beauty", as he is so well known, was a tower of strength in Tulane's great forward wall, a vicious tackler and a fine interferer.

JOHN F. "RED" McCORMICK Guard

The name of "Red" McCormick at Tulane means a 165-pound sorrel-topped Irishman, whose fight and determination more than make up for his lack of weight. "Red" put his heart and soul in every play of his three seasons of football at Tulane.

Francis Cameron Payne Back

All-Southern Honorable Mention

175 pounds of sheer power and drive, "Fanny" was the hardest-hitting back in the South, and no opposing line was able to stop him. "Fanny" was strong on defense and his great blocking paved the way for many a Greenic gain.

Calhoun

RICHARD EDWARD BANKSTON Tackle

Dick took a vacation from football in 1930, but returned to the Green Wave last fall for a great season. He alternated with de Coligny and Upton in the regular lineup and was a tower of strength in the Tulane line as well as a constant menace to opponents.

Louis Mayer Boasberg

End

A star at tackle during the first part of the season, this powerful lineman was shifted to the flank position, where he has performed brilliantly. Boasberg is considered a certainty for a place on Ted Cox's eleven.

WILLIAM F. SCHROEDER

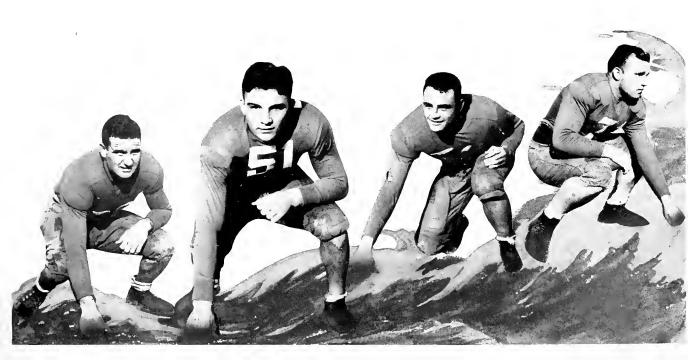

Guard

"From Scrub to Varsity" is a brief history of Bill's meteoric rise on the Tulane squad. A running-guard candidate in a year when running-guards were plentiful, Bill's aggressiveness and ability under fire were prominent factors in the success of the Greenie line.

CHARLES CALHOUN

Guard

The heaviest man on the squad, but quick as a cat despite his weight, Charlie is one of the best linemen in the Conference. Even though Charlie substitutes for the great Scafide, he detracts nothing from the strength of the Greenie line.

Hodgins

PENNEY

JIM HAROLD HODGINS Halfback

This eluvive ace back has seen plenty of service as a pony back for two years, and can be counted on for considerable yardage through his uncanny ability in an open field.

William Frank Penney Guard

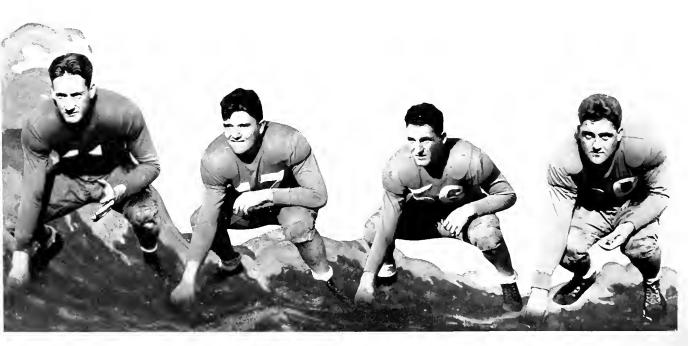

Lack of weight is his greatest handicap, but there is certainly no deficiency in courage in this lad's makeup. Billy climaxed his football career at Tulane with a brilliant season as an alternate in Coach Ted Cox's great line.

Elson M. Delaune End

An ex-scrubber, Delaune's great work earned him a place on the varsity this season, and played so well in every game that he looks like the class of the wingmen returning next year.

Harold Francis Lemmon Fullback

This powerful fullback had the misfortune to play on the same team with Nollie Felts; otherwise, he wou'd be one of Tulane's greatest stars. Harold has plenty of driving power and hits like a ton of bricks when plunging or when backing up his own line.

RICHARDSON

WILL PATTEN RICHARDSON

Quarterback

Pat has been "Red" Dawson's understudy for two years and looks like the logical choice for next year's field general. A fine ball-carrier and blocker, he has a cool and clever head on his shou ders at all times.

JOHN JAMES READ Center

A fullback in his freshman year, Johnny was shifted to center because of the wealth of backfield material, and has there performed splendidly. He is a fine passer and his defensive work backing up the Greenie passer and his defensive work backing up the Greenie line is unsurpassed. Johnny is one of the two married Wave gridders. WILLIAM J. DRAWE

End

For three years Bill has fought hard for a varsity berth on the Wave, but lack of size and weight kept him out. Bill was shifted from guard to end in 1931, where he saw service in a number of games.

George M. Haik

Halfback

George has been a capable reserve back on the Greenie eleven for three years. An exceptional passer and a fine running back, George is a dangerous offensive threat whenever he sees service.

ROBERTS

Cunningham

MAGEE

FLOYD ROBERTS

Halfback

Following an illustrious brother on the Green Wave eleven, "Little Preacher" has shown the same sort of stuff that made "Big Preacher" famous. A bright future is predicted for Roberts in his junior and senior years.

Thomas J. Cunningham, Jr. Tackle

"Pete" hails from Pine Bluff, which has furnished Tulane with a number of excellent linemen. Well over 200 pounds, and with plenty of height, this big tackle looks like a strong line candidate for next fall.

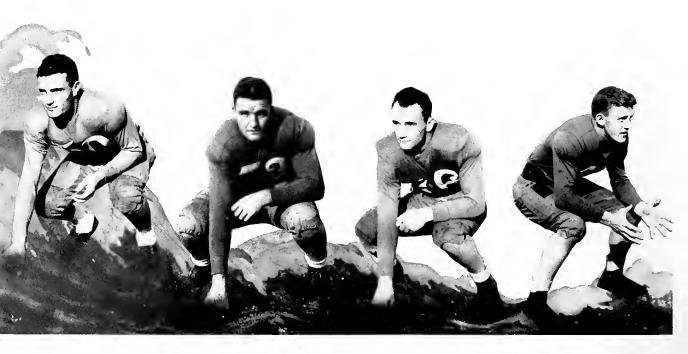

Doyle Magee

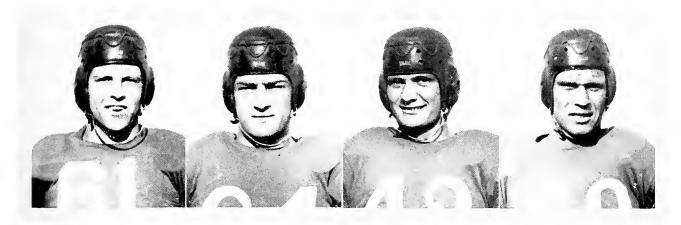

End

Doyle was a strong offensive and defensive man for the reserves, and kept up his end of the work when the first-stringers were out of the game. The Wave loses a good end when Magee graduates in June.

John Forrester De Buys Back

"Red" has played every position in the Greenie backfield, but has shown up best at fullback, where he was playing great ball at the close of the season. This is his first year on the Wave and his drive and aggressiveness promise him a great future.

PADDOCK

FEATHERINGILL

Alfred H. Paddock

Guard

Aggressiveness can make up for size to a considerable extent, and it certainly does in this lad's case. Al played fine ball until an injured leg forced him to the bench in mid-season. He has two years left to play for the Wave.

Samuel Zemurray, Jr. Tackle

Sam played in a number of games with the reserves, and his consistent good work gave the second team added defensive strength. Sam is big and rangy and has another year with Tu'ane.

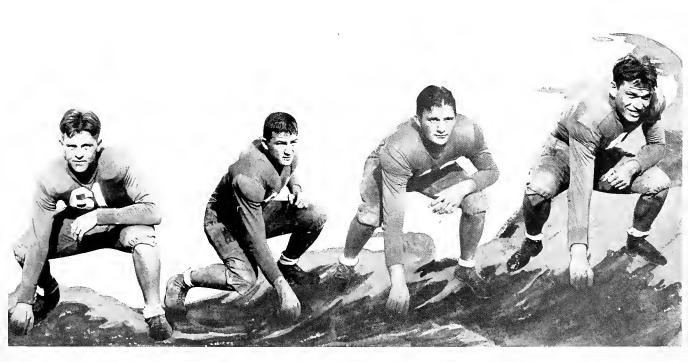

CHARLES W. O'NEILL

End

"Peggy" is Slidell's candidate for gridiron glory, and his consistently fine play has stamped him as a fine prospect for the 1932 Wave. Light, but aggressive, "Peggy" is a hard man to get around, and is an exceptional pass-receiver.

WILLIAM J. FEATHERINGILL Tackle

Featheringill is a big, strong lineman with plenty of power, and saw service often in 1931. With the experience gained on this year's Wave, he should make a strong bid for one of the tackle berths on Ted Cox's eleven.

Death March at Georgia.

Douglas M. Warriner

Quarterback

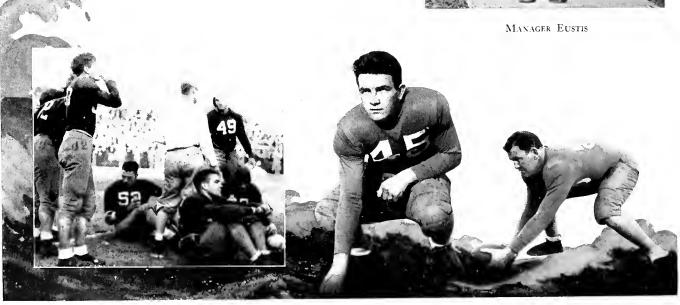

Small, but plenty smart, Doug has two more years to play for the Green Wave. He improved greatly in 1931 and should make a competent alternate for Richardson on next year's Cox-coached varsity.

Doyless L. Hill

Center

Whether he is in the ring or on the gridiron, Doyless is a real fighter, and packs plenty of power in his 195-pound body. A shoulder injury which took a long time to heal kept him on the bench during the latter part of the season.

Nollie Scores-Mississippi A. and M.

Dawkins

HENRIQUES

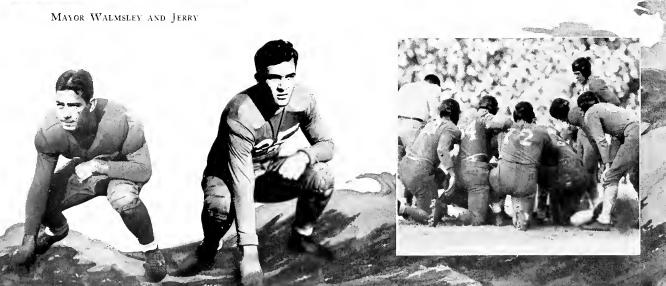

Ben C. Dawkins, Jr.

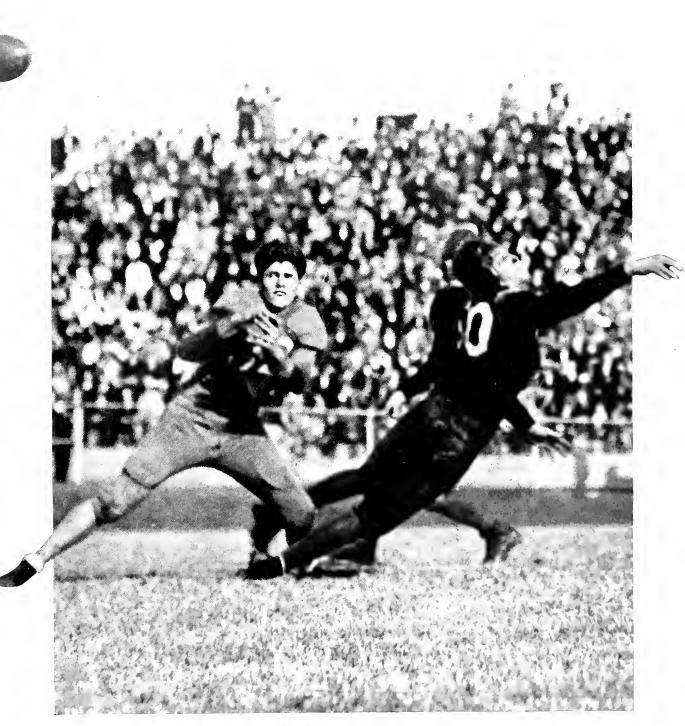

Guard

A hard worker and a real fighter, "Hawkins" played headsup ball whenever he got into action. Ben's consistent p'ay may help out the guard situation next season, for this is his first year on the varsity.

EDOUARD F. HENRIQUES, JR. End

Eddie has been tried out at almost every position, and finally ended up at end. He is handicapped by lack of weight, but has plenty of fight and is a strong defensive man.

Glue-Hands at work.

The Rose Bowl Line-up.

THAT ROSE BOWL AFFAIR

Victory in defeat!

Such was the outcome for the greatest team of the South, which met the greatest team of the West, in the greatest football game of the season, at the Rose Bowl New Year's Day.

For Tulane's greatest Wave out-gained, out-played, out-fought, and did everything but out-score Southern California's greatest Trojan team in one of the most brilliantly-played gridiron classics ever contested.

Although pre-game predictions by the "experts" had it that Tulane was doomed to an ignominious defeat by from three to six touchdowns, yet nothing but praise flowed from the typewriters of those men when the final whistle blew—praise for the team that lost, but the best team on the field that day.

The score was 21 to 12, with Ernie Pinckert, the greatest Trojan of them all, providing the difference between victory and defeat.

Harry "Wop" Glover was the greatest player on the field. Running, blocking, tackling, or what-not, the "little stick o' dynamite" was in every play, and contributed the finest game of his career.

"Winnie" Lodrigues—"the best center ever to to play in the Rose Bowl"—was superb, as was that whole line from end to end and every man behind it.

Captain Jerry Dalrymple also played a brilliant game, even though handicapped by an injury from which he had not fully recovered. The Greenie leader and his running mate, "Lefty" Haynes, treated the West Coast fans to one of the neatest exhibitions of end play they had seen.

The center of the line out-charged the highly-touted Trojan forward wall which had never been out-played. The backfield evidenced its greatness by making twice as many first downs as the West-erners' hitherto unparalleled set of backs.

And the entire Green Wave showed its stamina and unlimited courage by coming back, after the breaks and Pinckert's great play had scored thrice for Southern California, to crash through for two touchdowns and threaten again.

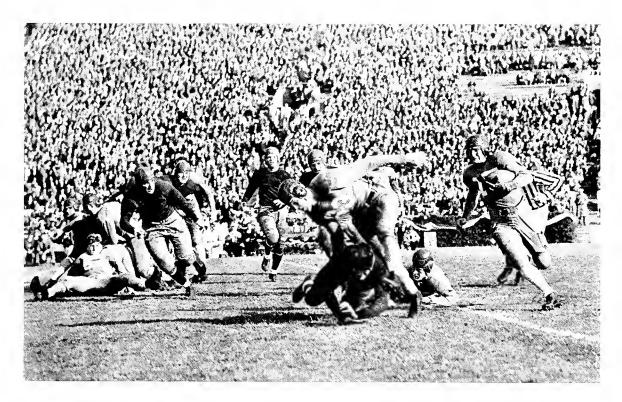

Southern California won the game. But never before has a Tulane triumph been so glorious as that victory in defeat won by Tulane's greatest Green Wave on New Year's Day.

Top—Coach Bernie Bierman and his charges in a pregame conference.

Top—"Wop" Glover sells out on a long jaunt.

Bottom—Just one of the fiftyeight times that Don handled the ball.

THE BABY BILLOW

While the loss of every game of a three-game schedule cannot be termed a brilliant record, yet the 1931 Little Billow football season was of great importance in that it uncovered a wealth of potentially fine material which will be available for Coach Ted Cox's varsity next fall.

The Wavelets looked powerful against Alabama in the first game of the season, tolling off 15 first downs to the Crimson's 4, but costly fumbles and carelessness in pass defense on two occasions left the Tulanians on the short end of an 18-0 score.

Joe Loftin and "Little Monk" Simons started the Billow off right against Auburn, scoring two touchdowns in the first half. The Plainsmen, outgained throughout, took advantage of the breaks in the second period and eked out a 20-19 victory.

Then, for the eighth consecutive year, the Tiger Cubs of L. S. U. showed their heels to the Greenie Frosh. Two fifty-five yard runs in the third quarter by Junior Bowman, while the Tigers were holding the Billow forces at bay, gave the Bengals the ball game, 12 to 0.

However, much credit is due Coach Ted Bank for his development of varsity potentialities, some of whom are Loftin, Simons, Pete Menge, John Mc-Daniel, Bob and George Tessier, Frank Bodenger, Al Barker, Carl Hill, "Moon" Mullins, Gus Clark, "Whitey" Hall, Milto Phillips, Eddie Poitevent, Dick Hardy, and Farrel Thomas.

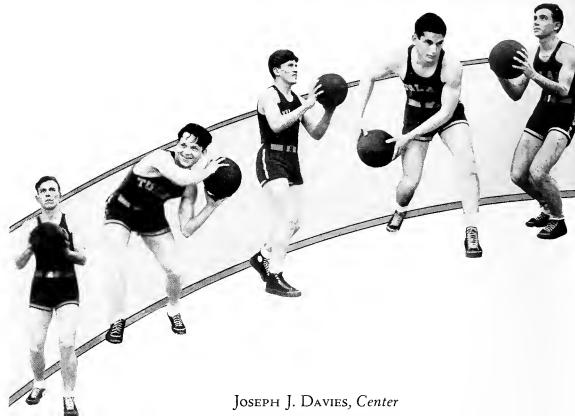

COACH TED BANK

BASKETBALL

HAYNES

Entering upon the scene at the opportune moment, Joe provided the necessary spark which routed the Greenies from the depths of defeat and started them on a winning streak which was broken only when illness forced him to the bench near the close of the season.

HERMANN RUDOLPH MEYER, Guard

As smooth a player as the Tulane court has seen in years, "Midget" was forever a thorn in the side of opposing fives. While dribbling is his main forte, his excellent passwork, accurate shooting, and close guarding clearly show his all-round brilliance.

CAPTAIN VERNON C. HAYNES, Forward

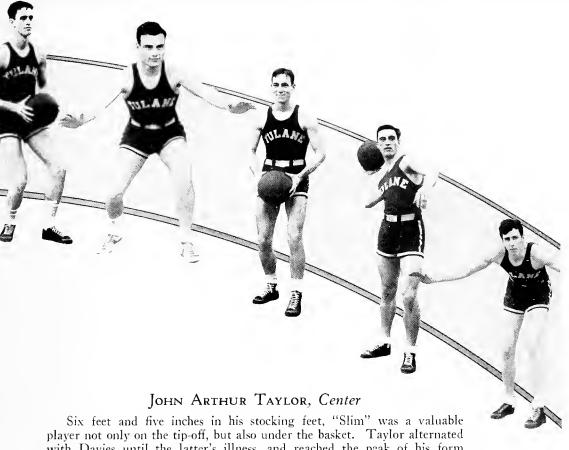

"Lefty" was as big a star on the basketball floor as he was on the gridiron. He was especially brilliant under the basket, and whenever he turned loose the ball from that big left hand of his, scorekeepers wouldn't hesitate to chalk up two points for the Wave.

MURRAY CLEVELAND, Guard

A veritable ball-hawk, Murray is one of the finest guards ever to play on the Tulane court. A strong offensive player and the backbone of the Wave defense, Murray's play featured the season until an injured knee in the first L. S. U. series put him on the bench.

ERNEST W. BECK, Forward

The smallest man on the squad, Ernie's speed and fight more than make up for any deficiency in size. "Junior" is a fast breaker and a dead shot for the basket from any position on the floor.

with Davies until the latter's illness, and reached the peak of his form against L. S. U.

FLOYD ROBERTS, Guard

"Little Preacher" was the only football player on the squad besides Haynes, and didn't see much action until late in the season. Roberts started as a forward, but his first-class guarding and fine floor work soon placed him at a defensive berth.

CORNELIUS DONOVAN SCHNEIDAU, Forward

Connie plays either forward or center, and plays fine ball at both positions. Fast on his feet and a fighter under the basket, Connie is a hard man to stop, and can loop the ball through the hoop with the best of them.

ADRIEN ANDREW MAUGHT, Guard

Adrien was the versatile utility man of the squad, performing creditably at every position on the team. Strong, fast, and an accurate shot, his excellent defensive play found him playing a guard position by the close of the season.

CHARLES B. THORN, IR., Center

Charlie was the hardest worker on the entire squad, and is, consequently, one of the most improved. His height makes him a fine tip-off man, and, with a little additional weight, he should be an excellent prospect for next year.

REVIEW OF THE SEASON

COACH GEORGE RODY-

For several years, the weakest branch of Tulane University athletics, basketball, took a new lease on life during the winter of 1932 with George E. Rody, the newest addition to the Tulane coaching roster, holding the reins, and gave promise of attaining the same high rank as in days of yore.

Captain Vernon "Lefty" Haynes and "Midget" Meyer were the only veterans available during the season, but served as a nucleus around which Coach Rody built Tulane's finest team in years.

Employing the "Rody System," a type of play new in Southern Conference basketball, with some difficulty because of its novelty to members of the squad, the Greenie cagers lost their first pair of games to Alabama's powerful team, 10-15 and 16-38, at Tuscaloosa.

Then the inexperienced Wavemen received their baptism of fire before New Orleans fans, dropping their second series to a veteran Mississippi A. and M. five, 18-21 and 26-31. It was then that the excellently-coached Tulane quintette first began to show promise. The Greenies reached the peak of their form at the end of that week, nosing out Sewanee the first night, 29-28, and trouncing the Mountain Tigers in the final contest, 37-20.

New Orleans Athletic Club next fell before the sharpshooters from Tulane, 39-30, but Ole Miss outscored the Greenies in a fiercely-contested encounter, 52-43. Undaunted, the Beck-Haynes-Davies-Meyer-Cleveland combination launched a powerful attack that submerged the Ole Miss cagers under a 41-29 score.

A great Tulane quintette trounced the hitherto unbeaten Auburn five, 26-21, in the first contest of a two-game series, but then Disaster, in the form of illness to Joe Davies, crack Wave pivot man, disrupted the perfectly functioning Greenie first-string line-up.

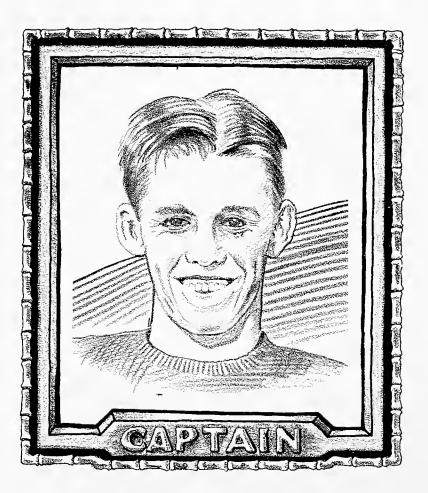

Auburn captured the second engagement, 42-37. Then, in the L. S. U. series, Murray Cleveland, the key of the Wave defense, injured a knee and took his place alongside Davies on the disabled list for the rest of the season.

The Greenie five dropped three straight to L. S. U., 37-25, 34-22, and 29-26. With "Slim" Taylor, "Preacher" Roberts, Adrien Maught, and Connie Schneidau filling the vacancies, the Tulanians won the final Tiger contest, 33-29, and received an invitation to the Conference tournament.

Kentucky, pre-tourney favorite, proved too strong for the Greenies at Atlanta, and the Wavemen closed their season on the short end of a 50-30 score.

With but one player, Captain Haynes, to be lost to Coach Rody next season, and a fine freshman team coming up, prospects are fine for a banner year in Tulane Basketball.

TRACK

FRITZ OAKES, Track Coach

Track and field achieved unprecedented success during 1931, with Captain Hugh Whatley leading Tulane's greatest squad of spikemen through its most brilliant season, which culminated in the Greenies' first Southern Conference championship.

After a disappointing start in the Conference indoor championships, the Wavemen opened their outdoor season auspiciously with a $59\frac{1}{2}$ - $52\frac{1}{2}$ victory over Alabama. Darrell Pischoff and "Foots" de Coligny topped the scorers with two first places each.

Auburn temporarily spiked Tulane track aspirations the following week by winning six events and consistently scoring second places to win, 62 to 50. Don Zimmerman, Whatley, and de Coligny each scored two firsts.

Eleven first places out of a possible fourteen gave the Greenies an easy victory over Mississippi A. and M., and the Aggies returned to Starkville smarting under a 76-36 defeat. Captain Whatley broke the Tulane 220-yard dash record by stepping the distance in 21 3-5 seconds, and the rest of the team displayed correspondingly good form.

Tulane's football relay quartette broke its own record at the Drake relays, but was nosed out for first place by the University of Texas. Whatley, Zimmerman, Felts, and de Coligny carried the Tulane colors, while Elmer Massey, member of the team the previous year, was unable to compete because of a leg injury.

Zimmerman Clearing the Bar

For the first time since pre-war days, a Tulane team met L. S. U. and came away on the long end of the score. "Nebby" Miller broke 50 seconds in the quarter, Jimmy Wells and de Coligny each won two events, and the rest of the team boosted the total to $65\frac{1}{2}$ for the Wave as compared with $46\frac{1}{2}$ for the Tigers.

A stirring bit of athletic drama featured Tulane's Southern Conference victory. Don Zimmerman had just bested the field in the pole vault and was preparing for a try for a new record, when it was learned that another place in the javelin throw, besides "Lefty" Haynes' certain second place, would give Tulane the meet.

Zimmerman had not participated in this event all year because of a bad arm, but cast discretion to the winds as well as his opportunity for a new pole vault record, and tossed the spear for a fourth place and Tulane's first Conference title.

It took more than one Tulane man to win that meet, however. "Foots" de Coligny was nosed out by inches in both hurdle races but scored two second places. Captain Hugh Whatley, fifth in both dashes, was right up with the leaders as the field swept through the tape in a blanket finish.

"Pash" Massey's splendid 9.9 100-yard dash in his heat of the the century was also worthy of note. "Fatty" Oelkers shot-putting, "Nebby" Miller's bang-up quarter, in which he ran around the field to finish close to the record-breaker, Francis Payne's hurling of the discus to ½ inch of the runner-up, all were responsible for Tulane's showing.

But Tulane's real hero was a man who didn't score a point during the entire season, who didn't enter a single event, who didn't even don a track suit—but whose patience, instruction, skillful handling, and hard work made possible the most successful season in Tulane history—Coach Fritz Oakes.

A Hot Finish in the High Hurdles —Auburn Meet

de Coligny, Stewart, Carson

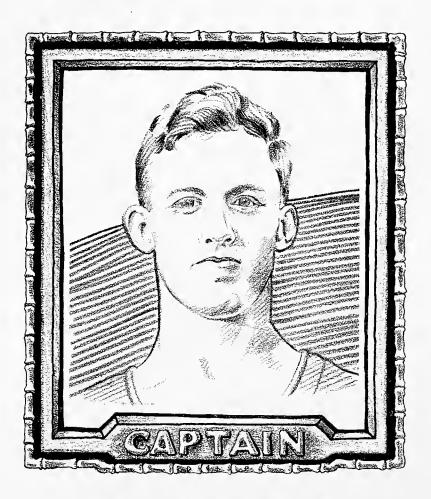

Don Zimmerman followed his brilliant vaulting during the regular season by breaking the National A. A. U. Junior pole vault record, soaring 13 feet $5\frac{7}{8}$ inches at the annual championships held at Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Frosh were not so fortunate as the Varsity against L. S. U., losing their only dual meet of the season, 73 to 28, to the Baby Bengals. Nick Bouzon scored Tulane's only undisputed first place in the 440, while Thorne and Richards tied with Tigers in the low hurdles and high jump, respectively.

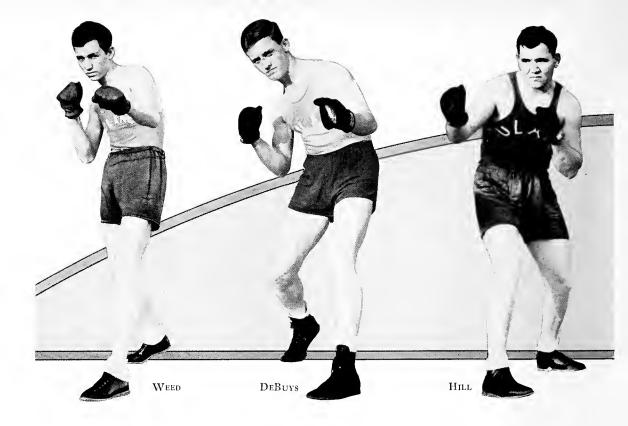

The Second Annual Tulane Interscholastic Relays, held in conjunction with the Mississippi A. and M. meet, was a great success. More than two hundred prep and high school athletes from five states helped chalk up seven new records in the competition.

Beta Theta Pi won the Pan-Hellenic track and field championship for the second consecutive year, scoring 36 2-5 points to top Kappa Alpha with 24½. Delta Tau Delta was a close third. Don Zimmerman, Beta star, was high point scorer with three firsts and a second.

BOXING

ZEMURRAY

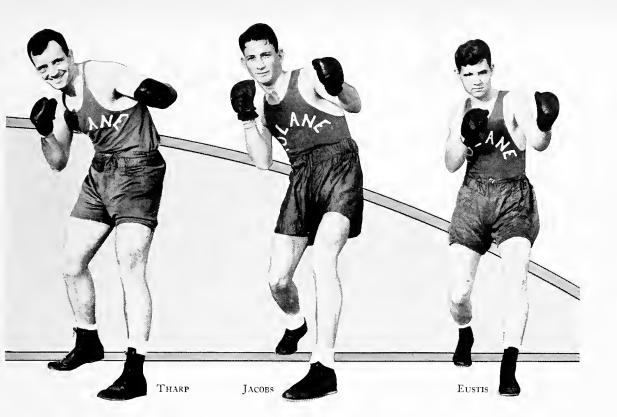

Though misfortune—in the form of illness, ineligibility, and the breaks—wreaked havoc with Tulane's finest ring prospects, the Greenie mittmen nevertheless won three out of four matches and captured runner-up honors in the Southern Conference boxing championships.

A Conference champion, and two second place winners in the tournament last year, constituted the nucleus around which Coach Ted Bank was to build his 1932 team, and even though lack of numbers provided a difficult problem, a fine array of fighters entered the ring for the first bouts of the year.

Boyless Hill decided the Florida match when he knocked out the 'Gator heavyweight with the score knotted at three bouts for each team. "Ding-Dong" Jacobs, Page Tharp, and Sam Zemurray were the other Greenie winners, while Ebo Eustis, Harold Moise, and John Weed were defeated in their first intercollegiate bouts.

Captain John "Red" DeBuys celebrated his first bout of the year against Mississippi A. and M. by badly beating Chandler Page, Conference middleweight champion. Jacobs and Zemurray kayoed their opponents, while Hill had his man in a bad way at the final gong.

Eustis and Moise won close decisions, while Weed was the lone Tulanian on the losing end, dropping his bout in the welter class.

Smashing victories in the last three bouts, following Jacobs' win in the lightweight division, gave the Wave a close victory over Duke. Captain DeBuys' opponent was saved by the bell, while Zemurray and Hill each tucked his man away in less than the allotted three rounds.

Joe McCloskey lost a hairline decision in his first battle for Tulane, while Weed's defeat was also close. The Conference bantam titleholder beat Eustis in the second round when a split eye forced the Tulanian to retire.

Lenny Isacks, Greenie manager, featured the L. S. U. bouts, when he entered the ring in the middleweight division in which Tulane had no representative. Although defeared, Isacks won the admiration of the entire assembly.

Hill and Tharp—the latter fighting in the lightheavy division—were the only winners for Tulane, although Jacobs deserved a draw in his bout with Glaze, Tiger lightweight, who had defeated the national intercollegiate champ. Eustis, Moise, and Weed lost decisions.

Sam Zemurray's illness, "Ding-Dong" Jacobs' ineligibility, and Ebo Eustis' injury crippled Tulane's hitherto sky-high hopes for the Conference title.

Then, to cap the climax, Captain John DeBuys was the unlucky victim of a lucky punch—the only one his opponent landed in the entire bout—and took the count with but 15 seconds remaining in the final round.

Page Tharp, subbing for Zemurray, reached the finals of the lightheavy division against much heavier men, but lost a close decision.

Doyless Hill, Tulane's undefeated big boy, swept through the opposition in the heavy division with ease, and captured his second successive Conference title when his opponent in the finals failed to meet the bell.

Bob Jackson, Harold Moise, "Putt" Porter, and Johnnie Weed all lost first-round bouts in the four lower classes by close decisions.

Hill, Zemurray, and DeBuys participated in the national intercollegiate championships in April, and brought new honors in the circle to Tulane.

To Coach Ted Bank goes no small share of the great success of the Tulane boxers, for his excellent work, both as coach and friend, in developing such a splendid group of ringmen to represent the Wave, and in surmounting the most disheartening handicaps to bring the season to such a successful close.

OTHER SPORTS

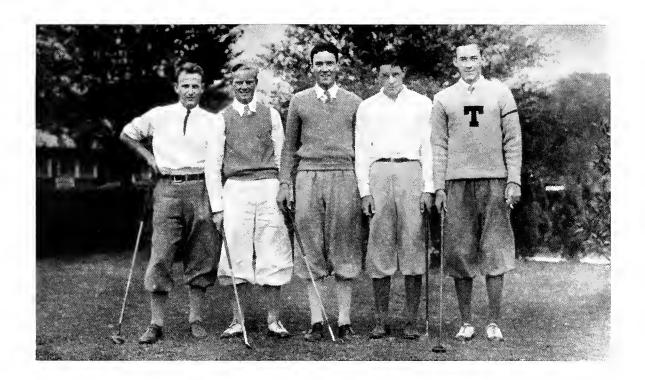

GOLF Tulane's finest array of club-swingers attained the heights of Southern Conference golfdom during 1931, tossing aside the best that Dixie had to offer, and tasted defeat only in the national intercollegiate championships.

All the Greenie golfing candidates competed in a 72-hole medal play tournament at the beginning of the season, held for the purpose of discovering the best talent in the university. Captain Jesse Rainwater won medalist honors.

SCHULZE DODGE FRIEDRICHS

Georgia Tech, first on the Wave schedule, was easily beaten, but Alabama unexpectedly held the Greenies to a tie. Then Duke fell before the Tulanian's accurate stroking, and the Conference tourney fell due.

George Bush was medalist, and Rudy Schulze runner-up. Russell Welch and Captain Rainwater also qualified. In the play, Welch lost to Bush, and Schulze lost to an Alabama boy who broke the course record to do it.

Rainwater fell before Albert Wheeler, Vandy star and the ultimate individual champion, in two extra holes, while Bush was beaten in the finals by the same player, in another extra-hole match.

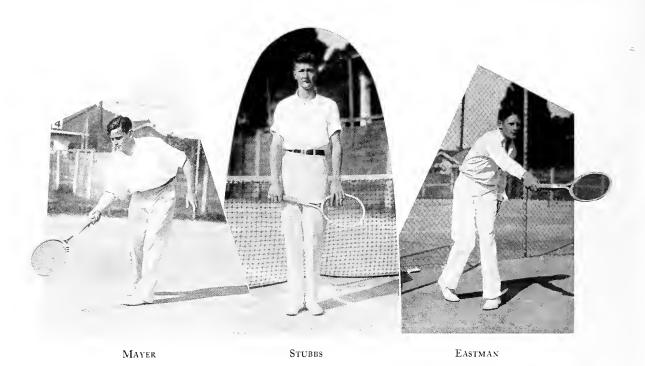

The Greenies won the team championship with a score seven strokes better than Vanderbilt, the runner-up. The season closed when the Wavemen trounced L. S. U. badly at Baton Rouge.

Dr. Frederick Hard handled the Tulane golfers during the entire season, and his excellent and efficient management was greatly beneficial to and appreciated by the Greenie linksmen.

In the early summer five Tulanians—Rainwater, Bush, Welch, Schulze, and Shelby Friedrichs—entered the national intercollegiate at Chicago, and made a very creditable showing.

The team bettered the championship score of the previous year, but three strokes over the winning Yale card.

Captain Rainwater reached the quarter-finals of the individual play, losing to Tommy Aycock, who in turn lost to George Dunlap, of Princeton, the champion. Jesse won five of the last nine holes, but lost the 36-hole match, one up.

TENNIS

While the season's tennis record did not quite come up to that of '29 or '30, Coach Mercer Beasley's net stars continued to uphold Tulane's excellent reputation on the courts during 1931, and topped off a highly successful season with a splendid showing in the Southern Conference championships.

The Greenies started their campaign rather auspiciously with two decisive victories in one week-end—over the New Orleans Country Club and the City Park Tennis Club—and then journeyed to the Gulf Coast to defeat the Edgewater Gulf Hotel team.

The University of Texas team, boasting some of the country's ranking players, were first to down the Tulanians, and the University of Illinois then eked out a very close victory, 4 matches to 2. Perry Eastman, No. 1 for Tulane, played brilliantly to eliminate Jay Topper, one of the best in the Middle West, in the feature match.

The following week seven Greenie stars entered the New Orleans Country Club invitation tournament, but none reached any further than the second round in competition with several of the highest ranking tennis players in the United States.

A two-man team from Drake, boasting the Missouri Valley intercollegiate champion, next appeared on the scene, but Perry Eastman trounced the Valley titleholder in three sets and paired with Harry DeBuys to win the doubles and a 2-1 victory for Tulane.

In the first Southern Conference match of the season, the Greenie aces earned a close victory over Alabama, 4 to 3. Captain King Stubbs won the final singles match which decided the day for Tulane.

The Mississippi College Choctaws, undefeated in four previous team matches, were next to taste defeat at the hands of the Tulane racketeers, and failed to win a set out of seven matches played.

Assistant Manager Reisfeld, Eastman, deBuys, Wilson, Captain Stubbs, Doyle, O'Kelley, Assistant Manager Cohn, Coach Beasley
Manager Beasley, Mayer, Blum, Caine, Shushan, Cox, Cooke

L. S. U.'s Tigers were as tame as kittens on the tennis court and scored but one victory as against six for the Greenies, and then came the Conference tournament.

The Tulanians failed to keep any of the titles successfully defended by Cliff Sutter and "Dooky" Bayon the previous year, but sent Perry Eastman to the singles semi-finals and both doubles teams to the same round.

Eastman was defeated in a tough match with Ed Yeomans, who was runner-up to Teddy Burwell for the title, and paired with Martin Mayer, lost a close match to "Judge" Beaver and Ed Napier of Georgia.

Warren Doyle and Lucien O'Kelley lost to the doubles champions, Yeomans and "Hinkey" Hendlin of North Carolina, in their semi-final match.

Coach Mercer Beasley, who produced this fine Tulane team from nothing but green material, deserves the utmost credit for the Greenies' success, for which, according to every man on the squad, he is largely responsible.

NEWCOMB ATHLETICS

The Athletic Department of Newcomb College works hand in hand with the Newcomb Athletic Association to give every student an opportunity to develop her skill in a wide variety of indoor and outdoor sports. With this aim in view, the Gymnasium schedule opens its program early in the school year with Newcomb basketball. This game has won renown for the college and for Miss Baer, who invented it, by its popularity not only at Newcomb, but at other colleges throughout the country. The final games in this sport are followed by the opening of the hockey season, at the beginning of the second term, and the excitements of this fast game bring many new fans out on the hockey field each year. After hockey comes Spalding basketball, with perhaps the most thrilling and the most hotly contested matches of the year. The interclass rivalry is very keen, and it is with a great and triumphant flourish that the winning class hangs its banner up in the place of honor in the Gym. The alumnae also show a keen interest in Spalding basketball, and every year send up a team which gives the varsity a very hard pull for a victory.

In the meantime other sports have been progressing in the department, so that the girl who does not play on one of the basketball or hockey teams may have a chance to develop herself as an individual star. The department conducts daily classes in several kinds of dancing, and in swimming and diving in the Newcomb pool, while instruction in games is going on. The annual swimming meet in May is one of the high lights in the Newcomb athletic year. The exhibition and competitive swimming and diving are spectacular and stirring, and the winner of the meet is loudly acclaimed.

While these activities are progressing, all the gymnasium classes are preparing for Gym

Mr. Smith

Night, which occurs in March, and which is always a gala occasion for everyone. There is wide variety of entertainment offered by the exhibitions of fundamental gymnastics, fencing, dancing, and apparatus work. Clowns from each class amuse the audience in their turn.

Baseball comes next, and the varsity team is busy practicing on spring afternoons to beat the faculty nine in a game which is the gala event of the season's baseball. Our staid and solemn professors then leap about in the excitement of the day, amazingly agile, and astonishingly like caricatures of their classroom selves—to the great delight and amusement of the cheering grandstands, which contain proud parents, prouder children, less active teachers and pupils shrieking in ecstasy.

THE ANNUAL TRACK MEET—Two varieties of jumps—Phala Hale and Betty Holt—Judging a close finish in the 50-yard dash—Elise McGehec putting the shot—Mettha Westfeldt in the discus throw.

Senior Newcomb

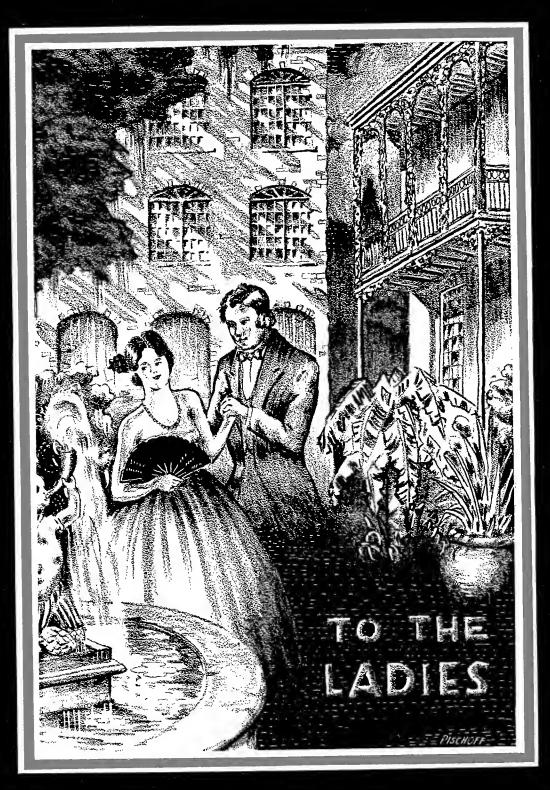

The Track Meet is the last event on the athletic schedule, and practice for jumping, shotput, etc., is continued along with the finals of the minor sports tournaments, which proclaim champions in bowling, ping-pong, horseshoes, archery, and tennis. There is an annual Varsity-Alumnae tenn's match, always a very thrilling event, followed by the famous Tennis Tea, where champions and would-be champions meet sociably.

The program of the Athletic Department culminates each year in Field Day, when the Track Meet is held, and when students from the city high schools come on visiting tours to make the acquaintance of the college in which they will soon be students. Awards and prizes are given out on Tulane Trophy Night the latter part of May, when the formal closing of the Department of Physical Education takes place.

We believe in the tenets of abiding truth which is the guiding star of our order. We believe in the helping hand which is the bar which binds us in our calling. We believe in the unity of service to one another which lends to the weary a word of cheer, to the poor a portion of our share, to the weak a meed of pity, to the stricken a voice of comfort, to the old a memory of youth and to the wayfarer a help along to the journey's end.

Our emblem will always be an inspiration to duty, remembering it stands for excellence in all things, purity of purpose and honesty of method and effort, with the blessing of an Alma Mater upon each who wears her badge of honor. May our lives lie among the stars which light the way to the great mystery and may we so live that when we reach the end of the road we may find the veil, which parted leads to the heights of everlasting peace.

Sic ad Astra!

The Tulane Law Review is a legal periodical, published by the faculty and students of the Tulane College of Law. It is a quarterly devoted primarily to civil law, comparative law, and statutory interpretation.

Begun two yeears ago, as the successor to the Southern Law Quarterly, the Tulane Law Review has, in the brief span of its existence, gained prominence both in the United States and abroad as a leading journal of civil and comparative law.

The Board of Editors is composed of junior and senior students attaining the highest scholastic honors in the College of Law.

The Moot Court Competition is the medium through which law students receive practice in brief-writing and argument. It also teaches the use of a legal library and makes the study of law more real and more dramatic. The competition is to a certain extent modeled after the Ames Competition at the Harvard Law School, in that the entire student body is divided into clubs. At the present there are four clubs composed of seniors and juniors. New members are elected from the freshman class during the second semester, but the points earned by them do not count in the competition. Only the points earned by the teams composed of senior and junior members when they argue against teams from other clubs determine the standing of the clubs which they represent. It takes two years to complete a competition, the points made during the preceding year being added to the senior points of the current year. The two clubs having the greatest number of points argue in the final round, and the name of the winning club with all its members is placed on the marble plaque in the law library. The Benjamin Club, represented by Miss Margaret Carrick Lester and Mr. Bernard McCloskey, was the winner of the 1930-31 competition.

The Moot Court Board of Advisers has exclusive jurisdiction of Moot Court work. It is composed of seniors and juniors of the College of Law, chosen by the faculty because of their rank as honor students in their respective classes. Under their direction, work which has received the approval and praise of some of the leading members of the Louisiana Bar has been accomplished.
